THE COLONEL'S CORNER
BY BO GRITZ

We added a new wing last month to the international fraternity known as the "brotherhood of the silk." Spiker men, women, and youngsters qualified for Gold Spike Flight and Jump Wings during the September 20-22 Airborne seminar at Jasper, Tennessee. Jumpers packed their own chute and bailed out at 3,500 feet equipped with the latest air-to-ground equipment that must be flown to a landing. Flying wasn't limited to parachutes. Spikers piloted a hang glider down an 800-foot mountain run; they learned principles of flight and how to control an airplane during all maneuvers from take-off, stall recovery, and landing. Day turned to dark and still we were airborne with night landing zone operations. Hand-made parachutes dropped survival gear on Spike DZs, as aircraft zoomed low with Spikers dangling hooks to pick up ground messages. Some of the more enthusiastic flyers even leaped off the 165 foot bungee jump.

A large "Iron Mike" trophy, long the symbol of American Paratroopers, was awarded to Sheldon Robinson from Dallas, Texas as the Best All Around Airborne Spiker. Bronze Paratrooper statues were presented to Bill Davis, from Vancouver, Wash. and Elizabeth Hilburn, from Springtown, Tex. for their "Bulls-eye" landings. Two troopers were recognized for scaring the crap out of the rest of us. The Blood on the Risers Plaque went to Spiker Jim Pipes from Manti, Utah. Jim, unfortunately, broke his leg in several places and Claudia Escobar from Las Vegas earns our Beautiful Streamer Award because her chute didn't open for the first six seconds but her reserve did! Best Bounce goes to Terry McCleary, Tina Kepsel from Kamiah earned Outstanding Trooper Award and Mr. Spike Airborne goes to Leon Riche of Chattanooga. Special Recognition and Award to 13 year old Michael Murphy of Thornton, Col. for Best Airborne Spirit. He was terrific! Congratulations to everyone of our new wing-wearing Spikers. Never before anywhere on the globe has such an intensive and comprehensive basic airborne-flight course been attempted, let alone successfully conducted. The air, even more than the sea is unforgiving of incompetence and carelessness. What each of these Spikers did was at considerable personal risk. The fact that so many did so well is not only a tribute to them, but also to the round-the-clock volunteer support and training staff.

We flew six aircraft with flight instructors, pilots and jumpmasters conducting more than 200 parachute drops with hundreds of maximum power take offs and max-performance landings. Spiker Leon Riche was our Chief Jumpmaster. Airfield staffs at Jasper, Tennessee and Stevenson, Alabama are to be congratulated for their assistance in handling the complex air traffic and special training requirements. The Chattanooga Spike C-Team demonstrated its efficiency and moral by providing a full complement of volunteer personnel to aid in feeding and getting our troopers off the ground, and back again -- safely. These Spikers truly are "Above the Best."

COMING SOON -- SPIKE SCUBA

There are 15 "specialist" areas where you need concentrated Spike training to become expert in critical preparedness fields, including airborne operations. The next "Special" Spike will focus on "underwater" operations! Spike Scuba (Self-contained Underwater Breathing Apparatus) will be held at Cabo San Lucas, Mexico in February. Cabo is located at the southern tip of the Baja. The water is warm, clear, and full of fun. The USD (dollar) goes a long way in Mexico. Besides being challenging and educational, this Spike should provide us all with a well deserved vacation. Plan on coming early and staying late to take advantage of the great fishing and other tourist attractions.

My skydiving daughter, Melody Marie, beautiful, 23, and still single, recently completed her National Association of Underwater Instructors Certification at Hall's School of Aquatics at Marathon, Florida in the Keys. Hall's is simply the world's best -- after the Special Forces school (of course). Melody endured two instructor courses just so you would receive the very latest and finest instruction at Spike Scuba with her as our Chief Instructor. Scotty and I will also be there with other frog-people to help you blow bubbles.

Spike Scuba will be another 3-4 day intensive day-night seminar. Exact dates will be forth coming in this newsletter as the curriculum and facilities are firmed. All Spikers capable of wearing a mask and fins are invited. You won't need a "dive" card. We will provide expert supervision for every phase of training. We will be teaching both sport and para-military techniques. You can count on day, and night dives with lights -- and the way Special Forces does them -- in the dark with jaws all around; also a deep SEAL dive; rescue, navigation, wreck and cave exploration, search, beach reconnaissance, spear fishing, and other special operations uses.

We will have a maximum number of students that can be accommodated. The cost to early-birds is $350. For late comers the price may increase as additional expenses for boats, air, tanks, safety, equipment, crew, instructors, and training facilities mount. I suspect we will only be able to serve 100 Spikers, so get your advanced registration in ASAP! I'll need $50 for each person attending. Send the fee along with name and age of each Spike-Diver. I'll be feeding you info on cheap flights and hotel arrangements as we negotiate them. All Scuba early registrations are refundable up until January 18 (my birthday) if you have to cancel. As with Airborne, I guarantee you an unforgettably wonderful experience and the world's best looking SCUBA Badge! There's no place else under, or above the sea where you will receive so much for so little! Plus, we can take a close look for commie tanks, Russians, North Koreans, UN meanies et al, that are supposed to be swarming all over Northern Mexico preparing to grind America into New World Order hamburger!

SPIKE QUALIFICATION AWARDS

New Spikers trained by those already qualified, or who complete the required Non-resident Video Instruction are eligible for Spike ID awards. Each phase is marked by a Spike ID Shirt. Upon completion of the first eight phases, a Green Beret and "Q" Certificate may be secured upon verification by the Spike Instructor. Further completion of Phase-9 gains Gold Crossed Arrows; then Phase-10 allows a full Spike Flash to be worn. The Phase-11 award is a Spike Badge of Courage. A Spike Challenge Coin and "Spike Master" certificate comes after attending all 12 training phases. The awards were presented to all Spikers attending resident instruction. Non-resident awards are purchased from CFA. The Special Forces Green Beret is $12.00; Gold Arrows are $4.00; The Flash price is $6.00; Badge $6.00; and the Spike Coin price is $12.00. All Spike ID-Shirts are $15.00 in sizes up to XL. XXL and XXXL are $17.00. Non-residents validate their requests with a copy, or reference to CFA order forms indicating purchase of the training videos. Course handbooks and texts are available to the public.

PILATE'S REPORT -- A BLONDE JESUS

Book of Mormon translator, patriarch and founder of the LDS Church, Joseph Smith said that Jesus Christ is of fair complexion with blue eyes. Was the Prophet Joseph Smith right? Many churches are today swapping depictions of a fair haired Messiah for a more politically correct dark skin, sharp featured personage typical of the Middle East. A document found in Vatican archives gives an eye-witness description of Jesus from Nazareth, the Christ! The document, one of many ancient records held by the Holy Roman Church in Rome, combines the observations of a well accepted Roman historian, Valleus Paterculus, and a personal report written by Pontius Pilate. The quotes below are found in Chapter VIII of "THE ARCHKO VOLUME" beginning at page 122. Chapter VIII is entitled: "Valleus's Notes. -- ACTA PILATI, or Pilate's Report to Caesar of the Arrest, Trial and Crucifixion of Jesus."

Valleus was 19 years old when Jesus was born. Valleus, according to recorded history was a close friend of Caesar, who raised him by degrees to become one of the great men of Rome, and for 16 years Valleus commanded the army. In the year 31, he wrote Historia Romania. Valleus says that in Judea he met a man called Jesus of Nazareth, who, while the most remarkable character he had ever met, he feared more than a whole army, for he cured disease and raised the dead. He says that although Jesus had such power, he did not use it to injure any one, but seemed always inclined to help the poor. Valleus writes that the Jews were divided in their opinion of Jesus. The poorer class claimed Him as their king and deliverer from Roman authority, but the rich Jews hated and cursed Him, and called Him an Egyptian necromancer.

Pilate's Report reads: "To Tiberius Caesar, Emperor of Rome. Noble Sovereign, Greetings: The events of the last few days in my province have been of such a character that I will give the details in full as they occurred, as I should not be surprised if, in the course of time, they may change the destiny of our nation. It seems to me that of the conquered cities, Jerusalem is the most difficult to govern. I would warn the Romans to beware of the high priests of this country. They would betray their own mother to gain office and luxurious living. So turbulent are the people that I live in momentary dread of insurrection. I have not soldiers to suppress it.

"Among the various rumors that came to my ears there was one in particular that attracted my attention. A young man, it was said, had appeared in Galilee with a noble unction a new law in the name of the God that had sent him. At first I was apprehensive that his design was to stir up the people against the Romans, but my fears were soon dispelled. Jesus of Nazareth spoke rather as friend of the Romans than of the Jews. One day in passing by the place of Siloe, where there was a great concourse of people, I observed in the midst of the group a young man who was leaning against a tree, calmly addressing the multitude. I was told it was Jesus. This I could easily have suspected, so great was the difference between him and those listening to him. HIS GOLDEN-COLORED HAIR AND BEARD gave to his appearance a celestial aspect. He appeared to be about 30 years of age. Never have I seen a sweeter or more serene countenance. What a contrast between him and his hearers, with THEIR BLACK BEARDS AND TAWNY COMPLEXIONS!

"I continued my walk, but signified to my secretary, Manlius, to join the group and listen. Manlius had been for a long time an inhabitant of Judeah, and is well acquainted with the Hebrew language. On entering the praetorium I found Manlius, who related to me the words Jesus had pronounced at Siloe. Never have I read in the works of the philosophers anything that can compare to the maxims of Jesus. This man was neither seditious nor rebellious.

"The unlimited freedom granted to Jesus provoked the Jews -- not the poor, but the rich and powerful. Scribes and Pharisees, he would say to them, you are a race of vipers; you resemble painted sepulchres; you appear well unto men, but you have death within you. Complaints were daily made at the praetorium against the insolence of Jesus.

"I wrote to Jesus requesting an interview with him at the praetorium. He came. You know that in my veins flows the Spanish mixed with Roman blood -- as incapable of fear as it is of weak emotion. When the Nazarene made his appearance, I was walking in my basilica, and my feet seemed fastened with an iron hand to the marble pavement, and I trembled in every limb as does a guilty culprit, though the Nazarene was as calm as innocence itself.

"Jesus of Nazareth, for the last three years I have granted you ample freedom of speech; nor do I regret it. Your words are those of a sage. I know not whether you have read Socrates or Plato, but this I know, there is in your discourses a majestic simplicity that elevates you far above those philosophers. My request -- I do not say my order -- is that you be more circumspect and moderate in your discourses in the future, and more considerate of them, lest you arouse the pride of your enemies, and they raise against you the stupid populace, and compel me to employ the instruments of law.

"The Nazarene calmly replied: Prince of the earth, your words proceed not from true wisdom. Say to the torrent to stop in the midst of the mountain-gorge: it will uproot the trees of the valley. The torrent will answer you that it obeys the laws of nature and the Creator. God alone knows whither flow the waters of the torrent. Verily I say unto you, before the rose of Sharon blossoms the blood of the just shall be spilt.

"Your blood shall not be spilt, said I, with deep emotion; you are more precious in my estimation on account of your wisdom than all the turbulent and proud Pharisees who abuse the freedoms granted them by the Romans. I will protect you against them.

"Jesus carelessly shook his head, and said with a grave and divine smile: When the day shall have come there will be no asylums for the son of man, neither in the earth nor under the earth. The asylum of the just is there, pointing to the heavens. That which is written in the books of the prophets must be accomplished.

"Young man, I answered, mildly, you will oblige me to convert my request into an order. The safety of the province which has been confided to my care requires it. You must observe more moderation in your discourses. Do not infringe my order. You know the consequences. May happiness attend you; farewell.

"Prince of earth, replied Jesus, I come not to bring war into the world, but peace, love, and charity. I was born the same day on which Augustus Caesar gave peace to the Roman world. Persecutions proceed not from me. I expect it from others, and will meet it in obedience to the will of my Father, who has shown me the way. Restrain therefore your worldly prudence. It is not in your power to arrest the victim at the foot of the tabernacle of expiation.

"To Herod, who then reigned in Galilee, the enemies of Jesus addressed themselves, to wreak their vengeance on the Nazarene. The great feast of the Jews was approaching. The city was overflowing, clamoring for the death of the Nazarene. My emissaries informed me that the treasure of the temple had been employed in bribing the people. They had seized upon Jesus, and the seditious rabble, continued vociferating: Crucify him! Crucify him!

"Three powerful parties had combined together at that time against Jesus: First, the Herodians and the Sadducees: they hated the Nazarene and were impatient of the Roman yoke. The Pharisees were the avowed enemies of Jesus. Timid and too weak to act by themselves, they had embraced the quarrels of the Herodians and the Sadducees.

"Jesus was dragged before the High Priest Caiaphas and condemned to death. He sent his prisoner to me to confirm his condemnation and secure his execution. I answered him that, as Jesus was a Galilean, the affair came under Herod's jurisdiction, and ordered him to be sent thither. He committed the fate of the man to my hands. Soon my palace assumed the aspect of a besieged citadel.

"I had taken a wife from among the Gauls, who pretended to see into futurity. Weeping and throwing herself at my feet she said to me: Beware and touch not that man; for he is holy. I saw him in a vision. He was walking on the waters; he was flying on the wings of the wind. Ah! Pilate, evil awaits thee.

"The Nazarene was brought back to me. I proceeded to the halls of justice, and asked the people in a severe tone what they demanded. The death of the Nazarene, was the reply. For what crime? He has blasphemed; he has prophesied the ruin of the temple; he calls himself the Son of God, the Messiah, the King of the Jews. Roman justice, said I, punishes not such offenses with death. Crucify him! Crucify him! cried the relentless rabble

"After many fruitless attempts to protect him from the fury of his merciless persecutors, I adopted a measure which at the moment appeared to me to be the only one that could save his life. I proposed to release Jesus and let him go free, but they said Jesus must be crucified. I then spoke to them of the inconsistency of their course as being incompatible with their laws. I urged all these pleas, but still they cried Crucify him! Crucify him!

"I then ordered Jesus to be scourged, hoping this might satisfy them; but it only increased their fury. I then called for a basin and washed my hands in the presence of the clamorous multitude, thus testifying that in my judgment Jesus of Nazareth had done nothing deserving of death; but in vain. It was his life these wretches thirsted for.

"Often in our civil commotions have I witnessed the furious anger of the multitude, but nothing could be compared to what I witnessed on this occasion. It might have been truly said that all the phantoms of the infernal regions had assembled at Jerusalem. The crowd appeared not to walk, but to be borne off and whirled as a vortex, rolling along in living waves from the portals of the praetorium even unto Mount Zion, with howling screams, shrieks, and vociferations such as were never heard in the seditions of the Pannonia, or in the tumults of the forum.

"By degrees the day darkened like a winter's twilight. I was leaning against a column of my basilica, contemplating athwart the dreary gloom these fiends of Tartarus dragging to execution the innocent Nazarene. All around me was deserted. Jerusalem had vomited forth her indwellers through the funeral gate that leads to Gemonica. An air of desolation and sadness enveloped me. My guards had joined the cavalry and the centurion endeavoring to keep order. I was left alone, and my breaking heart admonished me that what was passing at that moment appertained rather to the history of the gods than that of men. A loud clamor was heard proceeding from Golgotha, which, borne on the winds, seemed to announce an agony such as was never heard by mortal ears. Dark clouds lowered over the pinnacle of the temple, and setting over the city covered it as with a veil. So dreadful were the signs that men saw both in the heavens and on the earth that Dionysius the Areopagite is reported to have exclaimed, "Either the author of nature is suffering or the universe is falling apart."

"Whilst these appalling scenes of nature were transpiring, there was a dreadful earthquake in lower Egypt, which filled everybody with fear, and scared the superstitious Jews almost to death. It is said Balthasar, an aged and learned Jew of Antioch, was found dead after the excitement was over. He was a strong friend of the Nazarene.

"Near the first hour of the night I threw my mantle around me, and went down into the city toward the gates of Golgotha. The sacrifice was consummated. The crowd was returning home, still agitated, it is true, but gloomy, taciturn, and desperate. What they had witnessed had stricken them with terror and remorse. I also saw my little Roman cohort pass by mournfully, the standard-bearer having veiled his eagle in token of grief; and I overheard some of the Jewish soldiers murmuring strange words which I did not understand. Sometimes groups of men and women would halt, then, looking back toward Mount Calvary, would remain motionless in expectation of witnessing some new prodigy.

"I returned to the praetorium. On ascending the stairs, the steps of which were still stained with the blood of the Nazarene, I perceived an old man in a suppliant posture. He threw himself at my feet and wept most bitterly. It is painful to see an old man weep, and my heart being already overcharged with grief, we, though strangers, wept together. I never witnessed such an extreme revulsion of feeling. Those who betrayed and sold him, those who testified against him, those who cried, 'Crucify him', we have his blood, all slunk off like cowardly curs, and washed their teeth with vinegar."

"Father, said I to him, after gaining control of my feelings, who are you, and what is your request?

"I am Joseph of Arimathaea, replied he, and am come to beg of you upon my knees the permission to bury Jesus of Nazareth.

"Your prayer is granted, said I to him; and at the same time I ordered Manlius to take some soldiers with him to superintend the interment, lest it should be profaned.

"A few days after the sepulchre was found empty. His disciples proclaimed all over the country that Jesus had risen from the dead, as he had foretold. This created more excitement even than the crucifixion. As to its truth I cannot say for certain, but I have made some investigation of the matter; so you can examine for yourself, and see if I am in fault, as Herod represents.

"Joseph buried Jesus in his own tomb. The day after he was buried one of the priests came to the praetorium and said they were apprehensive that his disciples intended to steal the body of Jesus and hide it, and then make it appear that he had risen from the dead, as he had foretold, and of which they were perfectly convinced. I sent him to the captain of the royal guard (Malcus) to tell him to take the Jewish soldiers, place as many around the sepulchre as were needed; then if anything should happen they could blame themselves, and not the Romans.

"When the great excitement arose about the sepulchre being found empty, I felt a deeper solicitude then ever. I sent for Malcus, who told me he had placed his lieutenant, Ben Isham, with one hundred soldiers, around the sepulchre. He told me that Isham and the soldiers were very much alarmed at what had occurred there that morning. I sent for this man Isham, who related to me, as near as I can recollect, the following circumstances: He said that at about the beginning of the fourth watch they saw a soft and beautiful light over the sepulchre. He at first thought that the women had come to embalm the body of Jesus, as was their custom, but he could not see how they had gotten through the guards. While these thoughts were passing through his mind, behold, the whole place was lighted up, and there seemed to be crowds of the dead in their graveclothes. All seemed to be shouting and filled with ecstasy, while all around and above was the most beautiful music he had ever heard; and the whole air seemed to be full of voices praising God. At this time there seemed to be a reeling and swimming of the earth, so that he turned so sick and faint that he could not stand on his feet. He said the earth seemed to swim from under him, and his senses left him, so that he knew not what did occur.

"I asked him in what condition he was when he came to himself. He said he was lying on the ground with his face down. I asked him if he could not have been mistaken as to the light. Was it not day that was coming in the East? He said at first he thought of that, but a stone's cast it was exceedingly dark; and then he remembered it was too early for day. I asked him if his dizziness might not have come from being wakened up and getting up too suddenly, as it sometimes had that effect. He said he was not, and had not been asleep all night, as the penalty was death for him to sleep on duty. He said he had let some of the soldiers sleep at a time. Some were asleep then. I asked him how long the scene lasted. He said he did not know, but he thought nearly an hour. He said it was hid by the light of day. I asked him if he went to the sepulchre after he had come to himself. He said no, because he was afraid; that just as soon as relief came they all went to their quarters. I asked him if he had been questioned by the priests. He said he had. They wanted him to say it was an earthquake, and that they were asleep, and offered him money to say that the disciples came and stole Jesus; but he saw no disciples; he did not know that the body was gone until he was told. I asked him what was the private opinion of those of them thought that Jesus was no man; that he was not a human being; that he was not the son of Mary; that he was not the same that was said to be born of the virgin in Bethlehem; that the same person had been on the earth before with Abraham and Lot, and at many times and places.

"It seems to me that, if the Jewish theory be true, these conclusions are correct, for He could convert water into wine; change death into life, disease into health; He could calm the seas, still the storms, call up fish with a silver coin in its mouth. Now, I say, if He could do all these things, which He did, and many more, as the Jews all testify, I am almost ready to say, as did Manulas at the cross, Truly this was the Son of God.

"Now, noble Sovereign, this is as near the facts in the case as I can arrive at, and I have taken pains to make the statement very full, so that you may judge of my conduct upon the whole, as I hear that Antipater has said many hard things of me in this matter. With the promise of faithfulness and good wishes to my noble Sovereign,

"I am your most obedient servant,

Pontius Pilate"

ARE YOU A GENETIC JEW?

Who is a Jew? This question is hotly debated among groups and people who would claim they are God's chosen ones. Marilyn Monroe, Sammy Davis Junior, Whoopi Goldberg all converted to Judaism. Are they Jews? How about being a citizen of Israel? Would that make you a Jew? Does being a Jew mean you are of the people who come from Judeah, or from the tribe of Judah? Are you a Jew if your mother was a Jew? What about specific diseases? If you have one of the following disorders it could help identify you are being "truly" Jewish. I had no idea that Jewish people had specific genetic diseases. The FORWARD Newspaper (oldest and largest Jewish American publication) revealed in a large feature article in its August 23 edition that there are seven specific genetic diseases that are found in Jewish newborns.

1) Torsion Dystonia -- Neurological disorder.
2) Tay-Sachs Disease -- Primarily Ashkenazic Jews CNS.
3) Gaucher Disease -- Most common Ashkenazic blood ailment.
4) Niemann-Pick Disease -- Liver, Spleen, Lungs, Brain.
5) Mucolipidosis Type 4 -- Psychomotor.
6) Canavan Disease -- Head control, size, visual response.
7) Familial Dysautonomia -- No tears, eye problems, choking.

Could it be that as desired by those who demanded the crucifixion of Jesus Christ, as recorded in Matthew 27:25: "Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children," true Jews are still reaping the bitter harvest of bad blood even today -- even unto the 50th generation!? BIBLE PROPHESY -- TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCE

I've detailed in past newsletters exactly how the current Holy Bible came into being. Remember? Two famous rulers, long before 17th Century King James, commissioned a record of Scriptures. Ptolemy II (Egypt) in 280 B.C. caused the Septuagint in Greek to be assembled by 72 high priests taken from each tribe of Israel. After seeing the vision "in Hoc Signo Vinces" (in this symbol is victory), Constantine the Great had his army emblazon a cross on their shields. He won the battle and became emperor of the known world. Constantine worshipped the sun, but used Christianity to solidify his rule. Constantine ordered the Latin Vulgate prepared in 383 A.D. The Jewish Torah consists of the first five Books of the Old Testament recorded in Hebrew.

I've explained how the King James and Roman Catholic versions differ in the number of Books. Regardless of name, language, version, et al, the Bible chronicles the history of Israel and God's Prophets. The New Testament is the story of Jesus Christ and His teachings. IT IS EASY TO KNOW THAT BIBLE PROPHESY IS TRUE BY VERIFYING THE THINGS WRITTEN WITH RECORDED HISTORY, DISCOVERY, AND CURRENT EVENTS.

If Bible Prophesy is factual, we are on the verge of the most exciting events since Adam and Eve were placed in Eden; Noah floated on God's flood; Abraham bargained over Sodom and Gomorrah; Moses led Israel out of Egypt; the fight between David and Goliath; and the Birth, Life and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. If Prophesy is true, you and I may very well witness the Antichrist, Mark of the Beast, Armageddon, the Lord's Day, and 1,000 years of perfect Government in perfected immortal bodies transformed in the twinkling of an eye (1 Cor. 15:52)! Let's see why?

There are three accepted causes of war: (1) Political, (2) Economic, and (3) Religious. Harbingers of peace, e.g., Gorbachev, tell us a single world-wide government, economy, and religion will eliminate war. The UN has certainly established itself as a centralized government with the G-7 as its seven-heads. There were 14 "peacekeeping" missions in the 40 years since its inception in 1945. Since 1986 there have been 37 such operations with many more to come. Today "Peacekeeping" has become an international growth industry. The problem is in the hardware. All the materials offered are for making war and taking life. In 1993 America signed on as a member of GATT (General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade). This turned into the WTO (World Trade Organization) in December 1994. Today we have a one-world economy.

The latter part of August and first of September 1993, 6,000 religious leaders from all over the world came to Chicago for the second time as a "Parliament of World Religions" to form a single religion. The same event first occurred in 1893, but dissolved when the Christians refused to surrender Jesus as the Christ. A "global ethic" was adopted at the 1993 meeting vowing to "forsake their differences for the sake of the World Community." As a result the great global ecumenical movement is re-writing hymns, neutering God, changing sinners into saints, eliminating the Messiah, and fabricating a vanilla deity that all the world may live peacefully in religious tolerance.

Old Testament Prophets Isaiah, Zechariah, Daniel, and Joel, recorded events of the end times as did Peter, Matthew, Luke, Paul, John, and Jesus the Christ. We are instructed that the Lord's Day will be preceded by a seven year period. The first 42 months will be a time of relative tranquillity (Matt 24:4-11) initiated by a Mid-East Peace Accord (Isa 28:15, 1 Thes 5:3) and punctuated by disbelief (Mk 13:22), apostasy (Thes 2:11), rise of the Antichrist (Dan 11:21), and restored alter sacrifice in Jerusalem. This interval ends as the Antichrist desecrates the temple in the Abomination of Desolation.

1996 marks the 3,000th anniversary of Jerusalem. I've detailed how the turnover of authority will soon lead to a restoration of the Temple of David and Solomon. All that is required to restart animal sacrifice is an alter, ala David and Ezra. This could come at anytime now that Dr. Asher Kaufman has used ground search radar to determine that the actual temple site is not at the Dome of the Rock, which interferes with the Muslim Mosque, but is actually 100 meters north in an empty area!

The Clinton, Rabin, Perez, Arafat, White House Rose Garden Mid-East Peace Accord signed 13 September 1993 in front of 3,000 witnesses, not counting a worldwide TV audience, MAY BE THE FUSE LITER TO THE END TIMES! IF SO, THE ANTICHRIST WILL BE IDENTIFIED BY THE END OF MARCH 1997! Besides our own Presidential election in November, recall the United Nations Security Council names a new UN Secretary General. Both are installed in January 1997. Keep your eye on Gorbachev. The UN General Assembly wanted Butros-Butros, but the USA vetoed his re-appointment -- opening the door for the Antichrist.

Let's keep advancing the calendar based on a start date of September 1993 -- keeping in mind that we also had the September 28, 1995 King Hussein (Jordan), Mubarak (Egypt), Yitzhak Rabin (Israel), Clinton, Yasir Arafat (PLO) -- expand Palestinian self-rule in the West Bank Accord as another maybe start-date.

The 42-months of great tribulation includes such monumental milestones as the final spreading of the Gospel throughout every nation, kindred and tongue; two witnesses; fall of Babylon; ruthless rule of the Antichrist; and toward the end, the final establishment of the Mark of the Beast. Daniel gives us three lengths of time: 2,300 evenings and mornings (Dan 8:13-14), 1290 and 1335 days (Dan 12:11-12). Those saints who escape, survive, and endure to the end do so in the mountains (Ezekiel 7:16, Isa 35:4, Zech 8:23, Joel 2:32, Luke 21:28,36).

At the end of the 1290 days (Great Tribulation) there are another 45 days before the Day of the Lord. During this stage the two witnesses are killed and in three days raised from the dead (Rev 14:16); gathering to Armageddon (Joel 3:2, 12-15; Luke 21:28, Rev 7:9); gathering of Saints, Return of the Lord, and Day of the Lord!

Throughout the five years I've faithfully written this newsletter each month, I have urged you to consider becoming familiar with God's Holy Days -- not as determined by Constantine's popes and bishops, who gave us pagan holidays and practices veiled in Christian names, but as God's true Prophets established them in His name. These Holy Feast Days change each year because the calendar they are predicated on pre-dates the Gregorian system we have used since in 1752 America jumped from September 2 to September 14, a loss of 11 days. According to Jewish measurement we are now in the year 5757.

The reason to know about the Feast of Trumpets and Feast of Tabernacles (Zech 14:16) is that using the Start time of September 1993, the Day of the Lord computes perfectly to the Feast of Tabernacles (Day of the Lord) October 14th of the year 2000! We still have Syria to add its name to Israel's peace. Let's watch the unfolding of events during the next several months. We are told that no man knows the hour, not even the angels in heaven, but only God (Matt 24:36). We are, however, given to know the season (Matt 24:32/Mk 13:28). The leaves are green. IS SUMMER NIGH?

Many people ask why they should prepare for the Christ's coming? If it is inevitable, what can we do? Joseph's interpretation of Pharaoh's dream (Gen. 41) allowed for putting away food during seven years of plenty for the seven lean years that followed. Noah was prepared. Of the 10 virgins, only the wise five brought oil with them in their lamps for the night -- so it is with the coming of the Son of Man (Matt 25:1-13).

Is it possible you might consider not encouraging friends and family to dress up as devils this coming Halloween? Supporting these Satanic feast days can only add to your problems. Figure on doing something really special with the little ones who might want to trick or treat as Lucifer's Lil Imps.

WHEN BO SPEAKS THE TIMES LISTENS

There was a time when I wished Hollyweird would use its own imagination instead of following me around the world. Francis Ford Copula started off with a movie about a Special Forces Colonel Kirtz commanding an army of Cambodians in Vietnam. They wanted to use the photo in General Westmoreland's book (A Soldier Reports) and superimpose Marlon Brando's face over mine, Next came a movie with Clint Eastwood stealing an advanced aircraft from the Commies, followed by three POW movies (Uncommon Valor, Mission MIA. and Rambo), then they did a Sly Stallone in Afghanistan, etc.

The New York Times, Los Angeles Times, and all of the networks have increased revenues by doing take-off stories based on what I write in this newsletter and say over Talk America Radio. Most recently the New York Times did an article based on my reporting of the German takeover of Holloman AFB at Alamogordo, New Mexico quoting: "Until Wednesday, 1 May 1996 there was no foreign military base on our shores -- not since the British were ejected in 1814! Hitler would be proud!" The NYT writer, James Brooke, goes on to point out how well the Germans are integrating into New Mexico: "Germany's build up here coincides with a radical reduction in the number of American soldiers in Europe. In Germany the United States has closed four of its six air bases. If current plans are carried out, the U.S. will have the same number of combat planes in Germany as Germany will have in New Mexico."

The NY Times article goes on to say that the movie house now shows German films. A German school opened this September, and there is a German weekly newspaper. The restaurants and grocery stores now carry "310 European food items displayed below black, red and gold bunting, the colors of Germany's flag."

My family comes from the Bavarian Alps area of German Saxony. I believe the German people are remarkably like you and me. My objection to our federal government turning over Holloman AFB to a foreign power is simply that it sets a precedence that will continue to spread until America becomes an occupied land. I believe Hitler would be proud of the new world order. It is infecting every nation, kindred and tongue with socialism. Wasn't Hitler's political machine known as the Democratic National Socialists? Is Alamogordo a German social experiment in microcosm to show us what would have happened if "they" had won the war?

The Germans are obviously having a ball living in America where rent is half, food is a quarter, and gas is three times cheaper than at home. I'm sure they are individually good people -- just like the 5,000 Germans that were interned at Alamogordo as POWs during WW II. But, does the billboard written in German along the highway proclaiming "Begruesst die Deutschen Soldaten und Ihre Familien HERZLICH WILLKOMMEN!" (A Hearty Welcome to the German Soldiers and Their Families), reflect the "international" future of America as host to foreign military powers the world-over? Is this what we want? Isn't occupation what the victors do to the vanquished? I recommend you continue to read this newsletter. The TIMES does!

WHATCHA GONNA DO?

Episode #1: Linda Wiegand had no idea in 1993 that her husband Tom Wilkinson was raping their two young sons Jon (7) and Ben (4) until Ben informed his Vermont pre-school teacher that his dad made love to him. An investigation proved that the senior Wilkinson had been requiring the boys to perform oral and anal sex with him. He was charged and arrested. The children further stated that their dad and his sister, Karen Wilkinson, "prayed to the Devil." The nightmare went from bad to worse. Tom went to his home in Hartford, Connecticut and secured the services of an attorney, Louis Kiefer, and judge, Herbert Barall, to issue a order giving Tom and Karen custody. Linda feels there is a Satanic cult connection between the dad, his sister, the lawyer, judge and others involved. Linda took Jon and Ben and went into hiding in Las Vegas, Nevada.

All was well until a girl friend of Linda's thought she received a message from God and on the first of July gave the FBI the family's location. The friend later explained that she thought the best way to insure Linda and her children would be left alone was to bring the issue to a head. The FBI falsely promised the friend she could baby-sit the boys until the matter was resolved. Jon and Ben, now 10 and 7 were attending a summer day camp in Las Vegas. Linda picked them up for lunch at McDonalds. After dropping them back she went home to shower. The FBI broke the door down and handcuffed the still wet mom, demanding to know the whereabouts of Jon and Ben. When she refused to cooperate, they forced her to walk barefoot across the blacktop in 114 degree heat to a squad car. The agents ransacked the home and called parents listed on a Little League roster until they found the boys.

Linda has not seen her sons since. She was held in jail until put on the "diesel express" for seven days and extradited back east. Linda was charged with two felony counts of Custodial Interference. Attorney John de Camp from Lincoln, Nebraska secured her bail. Linda is now in Massachusetts awaiting trial. Jon and Ben are currently in a house with their dad, his sister and three other men. I fully intend to coordinate with de Camp in the rescue and safe-keeping of Linda and her sons. You can help by contacting John de Camp at 414 South 11th Street, Lincoln, Nebraska 68508. You may call him at

(402) 475-0404, or fax (402) 477-4487. Linda and John need your contributions. You cannot expect to safeguard a family by yourself. We must work together. Please be as a good Samaritan. Do all you will -- above and beyond the call of duty. TOGETHER WE WIN!

Can you see why and how Covenant Communities will serve the righteous as the law continues to favor the wicked? Please call and visit us at Kamiah. There is a place for you aboard the ark. Episode #2: The first the Stephen Ames, Jr. Family knew there was trouble was a letter in the mail from a Probation Officer saying 8-year old Shelina was a "delinquent." The missive instructed Stephen and his wife, Dawn, to bring Shelina into a Harrisburg, Pennsylvania Juvenile Court for judgment. Seeking information, the parents went first to the public school where Shelina attended third grade. The principal and teachers said they knew nothing of the matter, but assured the Ames that they would turn the girl over to any authorities who might come for her. Dawn pulled her daughter out of class that day. Then came a notice from the truant officer that Dawn had to come to court to be fined for not having Shelina in school. Things got worse. A Constable came to the home to arrest Dawn.

The children, Shelina, and 2 1/2 year old son, Michael, were both seized and forcefully taken from the parents. A secret session in the Court of Common Pleas in the County of Northcumberland, PA found Mrs. Ames to be an unfit mother. Government Prosecutor Leslie Brydon stated the mom and dad read from the Bible to their children without formal religious training. This was deemed to be dangerous. Both parents were found to be mentally incompetent. Further investigation determined that a one time boy friend was angry about Dawn passing out literature contrary to the Federal Reserve and debt of the United States. The boy friend, Richard Medellin, complained to an attorney, Herschel Lock, Esq., who took the critical FED document before Judge Ranck.

A third member of the court, Jeffery Mensch, Esq., stated that "bogus charges were made up due to the mother not cooperating," and that "it is standard procedure to make up charges." A Federal Judge, James F. McClure wrote a Memorandum in reviewing the case stating: "the taking of children for political and religious reasons are within the authority of the State and its personnel. Stephen Ames took the problem to his U.S. Senator, Arlen Specter, Esq. Specters aide, Tom Bowmen, stated to Stephen Ames: "What the money powers want, the money powers get, and they don't want people reading the Bible, or the Constitution. If you or your wife try to get custody of your children, or even visit them, you will spend the rest of your life in jail!" The children were taken on 5 January 1995. Since then Stephen and Dawn have not even been allowed to visit their children.

Court transcripts and other documents, including audio taped comments by Judge Ranck and Jeffery Mensch, are available by writing to: Stephen Ames, Jr., c/o POB 5373, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17110. You may call Stephen at 717-657-7026, or fax 671-1124. Stephen informed me that he had recently kidnapped Michael and was waiting for authorities to come for them both. The Child Services number is 717-988-4237. Jeffery Mensch, Esq. can be reached at 717-988-4174. CAN YOU SEE WHY THE AMES FAMILY SHOULD BE PART OF OUR COVENANT COMMUNITY?! What about before they come for you? Call us (208) 935-2918. There is a way for you and yours to be safe!

AGAIN, AND AGAIN, AND AGAIN...

Everyone by now is aware of the terrible loss in life, property, income, facilities, and irreplaceables in the wake of September's Hurricane Fran. More than 30 Americans were killed, thousands lost their homes, and precious possessions. Fran has been deemed to be the worse disaster to hit North Carolina this century! One North Carolina family had just replaced the roof ripped off by Bertha. Now they are left with an instant replay. Is there anyone with normal faculties who believes such disasters will become fewer instead of more frequent and more intense? Please show some intelligence. The prudent man is prepared. Make plans to secure a home where your safety is certain. Join me in Idaho and visualize our beach-front property -- BO KNOWS!

ALMOST HEAVEN DRAWING AT DENVER IN NOVEMBER

Some of you have far more need than means when it comes to preparing a place in our Covenant Community. Praying that Almighty God will grace those most needy, we will be ready at the November 8-10 Denver Expo to draw a family name for an Almost Heaven Lot. For those interested, we have a few more entries available! For your name to be in the pot, we need a 3"x5" card with your information and a $100 donation. The property to be awarded is Lot #4 at the Woodland Acres sub-division of Almost Heaven, Idaho. The site is one-acre with road, water and septic provided. A maximum of 150 entries will be accepted. You only have five weeks to make the cut-off. Send your entry (3x5 card and $100) to Jerry Gillespie, Box 307, Kamiah, Idaho 83536 today, or call 208-935-2918 for additional information. Your entry will be returned if you are not among the first 150 registrants received. I hope to see you soon -- neighbor!

ALMOST HEAVEN TOO!

Just when you need it, God provides. We now have four Covenant Communities, not counting the 120-acres Jack McLamb has developed on the back-end of Almost Heaven. The communities are designed to serve about 50 families each. Almost Heaven is sold out, as is Shenandoah (except for a few lots). Woodland Reflections is filling up and Flying Elk is selling well. Jerry and I saved our money to buy the first 200 acres. An angel helped us with the next 400 acres. As local land owners see that we are a desirable addition to their community, they are coming forward offering help. One farmer offered his home and more than 200 acres for development into RV lots which you own and basic home sites. We will eventually construct a landing strip on part of this property. Just when it looked like our Constitutional Community plan had run out of land, an owner on the east side of Almost Heaven offered his beautiful family home with out-buildings and 200 acres for Americans in need of a secure home site.

This new property adjoins Almost Heaven along the rim of the Clearwater escarpment. The view is beyond words in beauty. The lots will have clear building sites, but will contain far more trees than the other sections. Straight, tall, mature trees are readily purchased by lumber companies for around $1,000 each. Owners of these new lots may well be able to pay for their homes using natural resources of their land. Why don't ya come up and see me some time? CONTACT JERRY GILLESPIE ASAP FOR ADVANCE INSPECTION AND PURCHASE. THESE COVENANT SITES WILL GO FAST. CALL JERRY TODAY AT 208-935-2918.

CLINTON'S CONFLICT

Bill Clinton is a man devoid of moral value. Newspapers cite his "badness" as the charm endearing him to American voters. Add to his already well known villainy, the lowest political trick possible, endangering young uniformed Americans just to keep Dole-man off the boob-tube.

During the San Diego Republican Convention, Robert Dole and Jack Kemp rose in the opinion poles to within single digits of Bill Clinton and Al Gore. The brief rise went limp after the Democrats did their thing in Chicago, but still Clinton wasn't satisfied. He unleashed U.S. submarine, destroyer, and B-52 launched Cruise Missiles against Iraqi military positions, claiming Saddam Hussein was beating up on Kurds north of Baghdad. In fact seven CIA operatives were enticing the Kurds to try and over-throw Hussein. Clinton's continued punishment of Iraq through Stealth and B-52 Bomber attacks only enflame Islamic extremists to take revenge as mandated by the Holy Koran against overseas Americans.

The Nobel Peace Prizes come out this month. Hillary's veggie, Bill, our great coward-in-chief, is a candidate in the "peace-maker" category -- just for icing on the political cake.

OCTOBER'S SWEET VIOLETS

The person providing property for Flying Elk, an airport extension to our Almost Heaven Covenant Community, said he wanted to hold onto the land until his winter wheat could be harvested. Not being a farmer, I marveled in my mind's eye that ripened heads of wheat, dusted with snow, would fill his fields in February -- albeit that Kamiah is known for its year-round spring-like surroundings. The winter of 95 proved to be one of the most severe on record -- and there was no wheat -- at least that I could see. This Spring, as I thought we would be surveying, the runway, the fields filled up with their bounty! Winter wheat it seems is seeded, not harvested, when its cold. And so it is with Human Beings!

Remember those cozy cool nights last winter? Well they typically bring forth fruit in this season. I've always loved children and tried to ease their difficulty of being trapped in a small box of skin and bones. God makes them perfect. Even the occasional defects have a Divine purpose. Within, each little child is a part of the greatest miracle in Creation made, with the help of Mom and Dad, by the Master's hand. I have a favorite poem for new Moms and Dads. It's also for the newborn too, but they usually have to wait to learn our language before we think they can appreciate the words. For all those glorious Fall births I offer the proud parents, Carol Lynn Pearson's "Day Old Child".

DAY OLD CHILD

My day-old child lay in my arms. With my lips against his ear, I whispered strongly, "How I wish-I wish that you could hear;

"I've a hundred wonderful things to say (a tiny cough and a nod), Hurry, hurry, hurry and grow So I can tell you about God."

My day-old baby's mouth was still And my words only tickled his ear. But a kind of light passed through his eyes, And I saw this thought appear:

"How I wish I had a voice and words; I've a hundred wonderful things To say. Before I forget I'd tell you of God- I left Him yesterday!"

Be kind to the little ones. They are our Heavenly Father's most cherished. We are only their stewards. We'll be judged in how well we watch over and care for them. How can we expect to glorify God with great things, if we can't attend to the individual and family tasks? I'll never forget examining my first newborn's (Jim's) tiny hand. I cradled it in mine. The wee little fingers, nails and lines were most remarkably like mine. For a long moment I pondered the great mystery and miracle of life. I was only 19 years young. My focus was on just hanging in there. Still God opened the veil just a bit that I might see beyond my own nose. My son looked a lot like me, but he belonged to God. That was April 20, 1958. In time, as it is now, Jim's hand grew to be as large as mine. I was there as his Dad to help him become a man. I'm still his Dad, but also a friend. God put me here a few heartbeats ahead of him, nothing more special, both of us, sons in the likeness of our Father.

And to all the skeptics, this short offering:
I cannot talk with you of God. Since sober wise you grew;
So my one recourse in charity Is to talk with God of you.

GOD BLESS AMERICA -- AGAINST THE LAW

In keeping pace with milestones leading toward the millennium, we have presented evidence of the antichrist, new world order, mark of the beast, and Scriptural promises fulfilled. We have all witnessed the attacks upon God in America. Last year it was decided by the U.S. Court of Appeals in Denver that religious songs could not be sung at a Salt Lake City high school graduation. When a young man defiantly lead the assembly in "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," he was arrested. The school promised to review video tapes and punish students who participated.

In a further step to rid America of God's Grace, this year the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers has placed a ban on singing "God Bless America" without securing a special permit costing from $300 to $1,000 with fines up to $5,000 and jail time for non-compliance. Tell me that these "progressive" strides are not signs of the time. Americans have acknowledged God and prayed for His blessings since we broke away from Great Britain and fought for our independence. Men, Moms, Wives, and Children have sought God's hand of mercy in every war since. In a nation of 265,000,000 people where more than 80% claim to be Christians, why do we allow the few dissenters to deny us the windows of heaven? Go to Saudi Arabia and complain about Islamic prayers interrupting your day. Visit Thailand and protest the proliferation of Buddhism. Now that America has become a great and powerful nation, we no longer need God -- NOT!

I submit that governments come and go. They rise and fall with such rapidity that history students find it hard to remember when Babylon, Persia, Greece, Rome, Mongols, Muslims, Christians, et al were in power. You can identify a dozen great leaders? Try and name the vice-presidents in just the last 50 years? Yet, and this is my point -- PEOPLE GO ON! YOU WERE, YOU ARE, YOU WILL BE. Don't allow government to form a wedge between you and the most important relationships on earth -- your family. Love God. Love your family. They are everlasting, current government isn't.

The Holy Bible is a history of a covenant people. God blessed Adam and Eve as he does Noah. He covenants with Abraham and his sons Isaac and Jacob. We find God's grace upon Enoch, Moses, and the great heroes, kings and prophets of the Old Testament. The New Testament presents a plan of Salvation as God in the flesh travels the Holy Lands offering again His hand to Israel as the Messiah. The Bible is clearly a record of the past and window to the future. Without the Bible, we are blind. A Bible left unopened, unread, and unstudied is like having authorization to use Getty, Mars, Gates, Perot and Rockefeller's credit cards and not doing so. Ignoring the Plan of Salvation is praying for deliverance during a flood and then refusing to board a rescue boat and helicopter. Turning a blind eye to today's current events and signs of the time is saying no to Spike preparedness and a Constitutional Covenant Community.

It is easy now to list yourself up and, like Shirley MacLaine, proclaim yourself to be god. Noah was thought to be a gloom and doom alarmist for 120 years -- then it started to rain. The September CFA Newsletter report on the Sun created quite a furor. Scientists were quick to point out that the Sun is only "changing its poles." In explanation, the analogy of an orange and pencil was offered. "Take the pencil and run it through the center of the orange. The eraser and point ends represent the poles. Now, say the experts, the Sun isn't actually going to flip, only change its poles. So, withdraw the pencil and reinsert the point at the other end -- there you have it!"

In the physics of withdrawing and reinserting the pencil we have the energy, dexterity, thought processes, and coordination of a greater power working to grasp the eraser, pull out the pencil and reinsert it from the opposite end. Applied to the on-going Sun phenomena, who or what is making it possible to reverse the poles -- possibly God? And regardless of who or what, the fact that the Sun's poles are reversing with ill affect on Earth isn't an OBE (Outcome Based Education -- how does a student feel about 2 plus 2 equaling 4 type of question. It is not how we "feel" about the process," more importantly it is what the process directly does to us that really matters.

GIVE HIM SOME MEN -- MAKE IT A MILLION X 2

Nation of Islam leader, Lewis Farrakhan is planning an instant replay of his Washington, D.C. "Million-man March" on 16 October at the UN in NYC. Farrakhan swore to take his fight to the streets after the U.S. State Department denied him permission to accept a $1,000,250,000 gift from Libya's Muammar al-Qaddafi last month. Farrakhan, in defiance of U.S. law, visited Middle East terrorist host nations of Libya, Iran and Iraq. Farrakhan say's the purpose of his second mass assembly of Black Americans is for a "World Day of Atonement." Farrakhan would be better advised to hold his gathering where political, economic, and religious support is: in Tripoli, Baghdad, or Teheran.

There has been little or no establishment media coverage of this second anniversary march. Farrakhan will likely meet far more resistance to a happening in New York City along Rockefeller's United Nations Plaza than he did in Washington, D.C. The Anti-Defamation League's Headquarters is located adjacent to the UN Building. There are more than 5-million Jews living in America -- more than Israel's 4-million. Most American Jews are centered in New York -- their roots going back to a migration fleeing Brazil's takeover by Portugal shortly after Jamestown was settled in the 17th Century. New York was then known as New Amsterdam.

Farrakhan's words concerning family, honor, work ethic, personal discipline, etc. are sweet to the ear, but his actual agenda is still unclear. The Bible tells us in Genesis 16:12 that Ishmael, Abraham's son with Sara's servant Hagar, and his descendants will be a wild man in the face of all others. Considering our proximity in time to Armageddon and events leading up to the Day of the Lord, I, for one, do not trust Farrakhan's motives. I believe he would divide Americans through racial conflict in our metropolitan centers. I could be wrong. Maybe Farrakhan is a true deliverer of his people, or is he just one of the many antichrists who will lead many into the abyss?

Abbey of Denver, Colorado has dedicated the past 22 years to helping Vietnam Vets, as warranted by numerous city, county and state civic awards. As a Boulder County Veterans Service Officer, Dennis headed an official delegation to Vietnam in 1992 and came back with reports of U.S. Prisoners of War and criticism of Senator John Kerry. The IRS attacked Dennis and recently gained a conviction. Federal Judge Edward W. Nottingham was scheduled to sentence Dennis in September to 6 years in prison. A prayer vigil softened his heart and he rejected the government's pre-sentencing report, scolding prosecutors for filing false information. Dennis, fearing the IRS might continue its aggression against his young family, asked his dear wife of 23 years to consider divorcing him.

Dennis needs for every patriot to write a letter to Judge Nottingham requesting clemency. Dennis has been a constructive citizen all of his life with a spotless record. He should be allowed to continue contributing his time, talent, and resource to those who have served our nation with gallantry. Please write a short letter to Judge Nottingham. Pray that he will release Dennis Abbey to be with his wife and young children. Dennis has contributed a career to helping Americans who needed him. Please help him with prayers and letters in his hour of need. Address your letters to Judge Edward W. Nottingham, Federal Courthouse 1929 Stout Street, Denver, Colorado 80294. You may contact Dennis by calling 303-772-8931.

MARSHAL DILLON SHOT DEAD BY MISS KITTY

Who would believe it? How about the Texas Rangers losing to Oil-can Harry? Maybe Rambo being mugged by Barney Fife, or Barbara Walters beating up Chuck Norris? Well, it happened -- relatively speaking. Richard Mack, America's best Sheriff was voted out. Out of 3,200 sheriffs, Mack made headlines with his message for Butch Reno to stick the Brady Bill up her kilt. Mack traveled America representing Constitutional law enforcement. He wrote books on Citizen Rights and put Graham County, Arizona on the map. I delivered the bodily remains of tax protester Gordon Kahl to Safford, Arizona for Sheriff Mack's safe keeping.

Mack was beaten in the primary by his one time deputy, Jack Hughes. The vote wasn't even close. At a time when the airwaves are full of political lies and our government overflowing with miscreants, a real hero, like Richard Mack is rejected. MY ADVICE IS TO FORGET ABOUT EVERY ELECTED OFFICE EXCEPT SHERIFF. The Sheriff is your personal vanguard against government abuse. Find, support, and elect a candidate who knows the duty and power of the office, and has the courage to carry it out! Graham County Arizona's loss may well be anothers gain. Sheriff Mack, you and your family are welcome to join Jack McLamb and myself in Almost Heaven, Idaho!

SELLNER CONVICTED OF ATTEMPTED MURDER!

Those of you who have subscribed to the newsletter for some time will remember me telling you about Gordon Sellner of Montana.

Scott Weekly and I flew to Montana in 1992/1993 to try to get Sellner to surrender to the proper authorities.

In '92 Sellner was riding in the truck of Maynard Freeholtz when Missoula County Deputy Sheriff Bob Parcell stopped Freeholtz to question Sellner about an assault he had witnessed earlier that day.

Sellner was convinced that Deputy Parcell was a federal hit man. Sellner hadn't paid his taxes for several years and felt he was going to be killed. Freeholtz pulled over and Sellner jumped out of the truck and began to run.

Parcell stepped out of his car and called for Sellner to stop. Parcell said he yelled out to Sellner that he just wanted to talk. Sellner said that he was ordered to stop or he would be shot. Sellner says that Gold told him to fire at Parcell, and that the deputy wouldn't be hurt because he was wearing a bullet-proof vest.

When Scott and I were in Montana working with the authorities there we had received many promises to help Sellner if he would surrender. We were guaranteed by the local FBI agent and Sheriff that after immediate arrest and booking, Gordon could go home. A judge was ready for arraignment and the Sheriff even guaranteed Sellner a low bail It was a great solution but Sellner threatened to shoot any officers who came after him. Sellner claims he is a rigid Christian fundamentalist.

Will somebody please show me in the Holy Bible where Christ justifies this type of activity by anyone who professes his name!!!

Instead, Gordon decided to hide for about three years and then he was arrested on July 18, 1995 after trading gunfire with authorities. Gordon was shot in the neck. Gordon was found in the woods shooting a stump and Officer Mike Dominick returned fire.

Now he faces up to 100 years in prison.

Folks, now this man may possibly spend the rest of his life in jail. At only 57 years old with a wife, children and grandchildren he'll be spending the rest of his life behind bars because of paranoia and fear.

There is nothing in this world to be afraid of if you are knowledgeable in the scriptures, understand the end times, are physically prepared, like we have taught thousands in SPIKE, and know the law.

Strike fear and paranoia out of your lives and gain knowledge. That is the key!

STEVE VAUS NEEDS YOUR PRAYERS!

A great American singer and friend Steve Vaus and his bride Anna, recently received a gift from God — a beautiful little baby girl. Unfortunately, at the time of putting this newsletter together the young infant was under neonatal care born with some infections. Steve's bride also was not doing very well and is remaining in the hospital for a few days.

Steve has requested your prayers in behalf of his new born babe and his wife, Anna.

Please join me in petitioning our Heavenly Father for his great hand of healing on the Vaus family.

SPIKE DISTRIBUTOR PROGRAM

This exciting program is designed to help you prepare others for emergencies by offering them the SPIKE videos and products. You will also earn extra money for your efforts. This is not a multi-level marketing program yet you can recruit other distributors to help you in your marketing efforts.

By becoming a distributor you receive SPIKE tapes and products at even lower prices than the SPIKE price. For example, when you reach Level 3 you will, from that point forward, pay only $39.75 for each video you order and offer for sale. The sales price on the videos are $75.00 so you make an immediate $35.25 per video. Also, you can introduce the program to other potential distributors and earn a commission on their sales.

You earn a commission on everything you sell. Monthly requirements are minimal yet the potential is phenomenal. On the order form simply check the box for distributor information and application and we'll be happy to mail it out to you.

What Is The CENTER FOR ACTION???

Center For Action (CFA) was started by Col. James "Bo" Gritz and his wife Claudia in 1989. Bo had spent over 30 years of his life serving in the U.S. Army. He is America's most decorated Green Beret Commander in the Vietnam War. In General William Westmoreland's best seller, "A Solder's Report" Gen. Westmoreland dedicated a chapter to Bo and called it "THE American Soldier." Bo received 62 citations of valor.

After Vietnam Bo served as Commander of Special Forces in Latin America, Chief of Staff in the Pentagon, Congressional Officer for the Army and more. He holds three Master Degrees including Law Enforcement, Communications and Journalism.

Bo has led numerous POW/MIA rescue operations. It was during one of these that Bo was given the names of high government officials smuggling drugs by the drug Lord Khun Sa of Burma.

It was at this time in 1989 that Bo organized the Center For Action.

In 1991 Bo ran for President and asked Jerry Gillespie to join him as National Campaign Coordinator and currently serves as business partner and associate.

Bo was successful in 1992 of rescuing Randy Weaver and his girls from murder by the U.S. government. Bo testified before the U.S. Senate regarding Ruby Ridge and negotiated with the Freemen in Jordan, Montana.

In 1993 Center For Action started SPIKE (Specially Prepared Individuals for Key Events) Delta Force training and traveled through out the nation teaching special preparedness courses. After 3 and 1/2 years of training, thousands of students have attended the training in person or purchased the videos.

CENTER FOR ACTION

WOW, WHAT A CHANGE!!!

Well, what do you think? A rather radical change for us but we hope it's an improvement. There are several reasons for the change and we hope you'll think it's for the better. Cost is generally always a factor in determining the length of the newsletter. Because of the low annual rate of a subscription we try to limit the newsletter to 24 pages total in order to keep the postage and printing prices as low as possible. Generally postage is 55 cents each. Sometimes it's 78 cents and that causes a big difference in anticipated costs. Because of the number of complimentary newsletters that we offer (thanks to those who subscribed after receiving their free copy) $30.00/yr. for a subscription just doesn't cover it. Therefore, instead of raising rates we wanted to try this. Call us and let us know what you think. THANK YOU!

The Bo Gritz Center For Action newsletter is published monthly. Founded in 1991, the newsletter focuses on current events within the united states of America and the world and how the events may affect you, the subscriber. The annual subscription rate is $30.00 within the United States, $36.00 outside the United States and $48.00 for overseas mailings. There are no refunds on the newsletter.

This newsletter provides the "other side of the story" you may not be hearing from the national press. Col. Gritz's comments are based upon his 30+ years of military service with many of those years in secret operations and working with the government. From time to time Col. Gritz will recommend people who may be considered experts in different areas. This is not an endorsement but should be considered carefully by the subscriber.
